The Infinite God: Understanding Him

A.W. Tozer said "God dwells in a mode of being totally beyond us and wholly above us and infinitely removed from us yet when we think about God we are trying to think about someone unlike anything we know. God says, who am I like? or to whom will you compare me? The answer being, nobody; nobody's like God, nothing's like God. God is like Himself.

We dwell in matter and space and time and we are creatures. God is not material; he doesn't dwell in matter. And he isn't spacial; He doesn't dwell in space. And he isn't temporal; he doesn't dwell in time. And he isn't a creature; God is a Creator, not a creature. God was before any creature was and as I have said before, nothing adds anything to God and nothing can take anything away from him¹."

Note¹: "Facing the Infinite God" was a sermon preached at Avenue Road Alliance Church, Toronto by A. W. Tozer.

Application: "We should not limit God when it comes to how He can work in our lives."
J.I. Packard, "Your God is too Small"
